

HAM HOUSE AND GARDENS – NATIONAL TRUST

The House

Ham House is perhaps the most remarkable Stuart house in the country, former home of the Duke & Duchess of Lauderdale. The house was at the forefront of fashion and retains much of its interior decoration, textiles, furniture and paintings are shown in 26 rooms.

The Gardens

The garden is a survival of English formal gardening being restored to its former glory.

Cost - £22 National Trust members £14

For more information see www.nationaltrust.org.uk/hamhouse